Yes

Have you earned less than (150)-semester units?

No

What previous experience have you had in the area in which you are applying for?

During my Spring 2020 semester at CSULA I took a civic learning class with professor Dimitri Seals. It provided me with practice in writing civic engagement platforms, researching the education system, and proposing changes within the university. We were partnered with ASI Civic Engagement and spread the word about the CSULA voting center, brainstormed ways to engage students in the community, and surveyed dozens of students about their concerns. In my own time I have volunteered for political campaigns, and at the Downtown Women's Center.

State briefly why are you are applying and/or are interested in this position

I am interested in this position because of the impact it could have on the community. Now is a time when more young people than ever are getting involved in political change. If we could harness the energy of our very large student body to take part in that, we have a chance of making a real difference.

What do you feel are some of the major problems facing the students of Cal State LA?

I think students at CSULA are facing a lot of problems that are universal, and some that are more unique to our school. We are dealing with job precarity, lack of access to healthcare, and balancing work while in school. At school students can feel isolated because we are a commuter campus and can struggle paying for costs like tuition and parking.

List activities and/or organizations that you have been involved with (on or off campus)

- ASI Civic Engagement (through my civic learning course)
- Volunteer for Downtown Women's Center
- Volunteer for the Bernie Sanders campaign
- Working part time
- Certified Peer Support specialist through NAMI
