IV. Action Items

- N/A

V. Discussion Items

a. Retreat Update (Barnaby)

- Barnaby looking for availability of others for the retreat to be held August 19th from 2pm – 7pm. Retreat will involve team building activities, bowling, and dinner. Asks for ASI members to have availability for the retreat. Details will be provided in the event invitation. Is there something you guys believe should be covered during the retreat? If you think of something please let me know.

b. CO Audit Findings and Actions Steps – questions and discussions

- Barnaby goes over the Chancellors office findings and hopes to address any questions.

c. BOD Structure changes and implications (Barnaby)

- Barnaby working on the language to document structural changes to include the college of Ethnic Studies and its own representatives. All colleges have 2 representatives but at this moment on 4 colleges have been filled, the proposal is to go down to 1 representative per college as it will be costly on our budget. Keep in mind that our ASI fee has no gone up in 20 years and this will certainly be a challenge. This change in structure will impact committees and documents that come along with at a later time.

d. Recruitment for vacancies in ASI positions and University committees

- Barnaby has been looking at incoming applications looks like there will be a full senate. There are some applicants for some college reps but we do not have any applications for CCE or HSS. Upcoming work at the colleges will have be carried about.

e. Standing discussions items – Any feedback from student leaders and committees?

- Jaime, has met student Minaj a senior student who has not stepped foot on campus until her senior year. Places emphasis on students that have no enjoyed their college experience. Would like to see a prayer space for Muslim students, she'd like to see an expansion of prayer spaces. Has the statistics of a growing number of parent students that are looking for alternatives such as online/hybrid classes. Just wanted to bring this up to make the board aware of the current issues.

f. BOD Agenda items

- Barnaby asks if there are any agenda items that need to be brought up? The agenda will be prepared towards the end of this week. Are there any other appointments that we need to do?
- Jaime would like to appoint Aaron for Associate Justice.
