

Associated Students, Inc.
California State University, Los Angeles

“The Gloria Romero Open Meetings Act of 2000”

Highlights of Changes Affecting A.S.I. Board & Committees

- “Secret Ballots” no longer permitted [89305.1(e)]
- Must establish meeting time and location annually [903-5.5(a)]
- No action or discussion may take place of items not on the agenda, unless deemed an “emergency situation” by 2/3 of members present or unanimous vote if 2/3 or members not present [89305.5(b)(2), (c)]

Subject to Public Disclosure, “Closed Session” Permitted for Limited Purposes When Considering...[89307]

- The purchase, sale or lease of real property [89307(a)]
- Advice from legal counsel regarding liability claim or pending litigation [89307(b)]
- Discussions with law enforcement officials on matters posing a threat to public safety or public access to facilities [89307(c)]
- The appointment, employment, evaluation, discipline, or dismissal of an A.S.I. employee [89307(c)]
- Salaries, salary schedules, fringe benefits or other compensation of A.S.I. employees [89307(e)]

Prior to adjournment, public disclosure required for all actions taken in closed session!
[89307(f)]

Summary of Procedural Implications for A.S.I. Boards & Committees

- Board & Committee advisors must ensure that law is being followed and advise the Chair, as appropriate!
- Agendas must be posted in a public place at least 72 hours in advance.
- Agendas must include description of all items to be discussed or acted upon.
- Establish annual schedule of meeting times, dates and locations.